

About Special Benefit to Support Parenting Family

Temporary Special Benefit for Parenting Family

As a measure against coronavirus (COVID-19), there is monetary support from the country to parenting families.

Q. Who can receive the benefit?

A. Every family that receives “child allowance” are eligible to receive the benefit.

Q. How much is the benefit?

A. Families who currently receiving “child allowance” can receive 10,000 yen.

Q. What to do to receive the benefit?

A. No application required. The special benefit will be transferred to the bank account used to receive “child allowance”.

Q. When it can be received?

A. It is planned to be paid in mid-June. The detail is not yet decided.

Toyonaka City's Special Benefit for Parenting Family

Benefit from Toyonaka City. *Not all parenting family is eligible to receive this benefit.

Q. Who is eligible to receive the benefit?

A. A Toyonaka City citizen by 28 April 2020.
·Family currently receiving a “childrearing allowance” is eligible to receive.
·For family currently receiving “child allowance”, the eligibility will be decided by the number of family members and income. For those eligible to receive the allowance, Toyonaka City will send a mail.

Q. How much is the benefit?

A. 50,000 yen per family. The benefit will only be provided once.

Q. What to do to receive the benefit?

A. No application required. The benefit will be transferred on 20 May.

Q. Is it possible to receive both Toyonaka City's Special Benefit for Parenting Family and Special Benefit for Parenting Family provided by the country?

A. Yes, it is possible.

For more details, please check the city's homepage (only in Japanese)

https://www.city.toyonaka.osaka.jp/kosodate/kosodate/kosodate_topics/tokubetuk_yuuhukin.html